

School of Film & Photography
Photo & Film Semester
in Italy
Fall 2013
www.tuscanyarts.com

The SFP program in Siena, Italy, offers film and photo students up to 21 credits in their majors.

Students study with local, professional photographer Luciano Valentini, and local filmmaker Carlo Tozzi and other film professionals.

Luciano's advanced digital photo class includes work on studio and on-location lighting, Photoshop, a sunrise photo shoot excursion, and a photo show, among other things.

The final course project is a book.

In Carlo's film production class, students work alongside professionals on screenwriting, make-up, costumes, lighting, etc., all leading to the production of a short fiction film.

This program will encourage you to use your skills in new ways, and is your chance of a lifetime to live and study in a foreign culture, earning credits you need to graduate, such as:

PHOT 493 - Study Tour (4 credits)

FILM 381 - Cinema italiano (3 credits)

Fiction Film Production (4 credits) - Program Elective

Italian Language (9 credits) - fills Diversity Core

Service Learning (1 credit)

Also planned is a trip to either Cinecittà in Rome or the Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia

Take a look at what students have done:
www.msutacphoto.blogspot.com

For more information:

www.tuscanyarts.com

or email:

Johan Jonsson, Program Director

jjonsson@montana.edu

or

Robert Arnold, SFP Director

rfarnold@montana.edu

or

Christina Z. Anderson,

Assoc. Professor of Photography

czanderson@montana.edu

